DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 36 and 38 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. Claim 36 recites the broad recitation of a range of puncturing patterns, and claim 25 recites a narrow limitation of a single puncturing pattern within the range. Hence claim 36 fails to further limit claim 25.

Claim 38 recites the broad recitation of a range of puncturing patterns, and claim 29 recites a narrow limitation of a single puncturing pattern within the range. Hence claim 38 fails to further limit claim 29.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 36 and 38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. See MPEP § 2173.05(c). Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 36 recites the broad recitation of a range of puncturing patterns, and claim 25 recites a narrow limitation of a single puncturing pattern within the range, which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

In the present instance, claim 38 recites the broad recitation of a range of puncturing patterns, and claim 29 recites a narrow limitation of a single puncturing pattern within the range, which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8, 19, 25, 29-35, 37, 39-44 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
As per page 17 of the Applicant's Appeal Brief, "Appellants' teach that the minimum distance of the (48,10) encoder varies depending on the positions of the 16 punctured symbols. Combinations of the 16 punctured positions, providing superior performance, are shown below. When using the following combinations of the punctured positions, the (48,10) encoder has the minimum distance of 18 and provides superior weight distribution".

MPEP 2141 (III) states "Objective evidence or secondary considerations such as unexpected results, commercial success, long-felt need, failure of others, copying by others, licensing, and skepticism of experts are relevant to the issue of obviousness and must be considered in every case in which they are present. When evidence of any of these secondary considerations is submitted, the examiner must evaluate the evidence. The weight to be accorded to the evidence depends on the individual factual circumstances of each case. Stratoflex, Inc. v. Aeroquip Corp., 713 F.2d 1530, 218 USPQ 871 (Fed. Cir. 1983); Hybritech, Inc. v. Monoclonal Antibodies, Inc., 802 F.2d 1367, 231 USPQ 81 (Fed. Cir. 1986), cert. denied, 480 U.S. 947 (1987).

The Examiner asserts that it is well known in the art puncturing a code will not generally provide optimal minimum distance for a punctured code. It is also known that there is no general formula for producing a puncturing pattern to optimize minimal distance for a given code. Given a particular code the optimal puncturing pattern can be found for the particular code, but the puncturing pattern can only be guaranteed to be optimal for the particular code and will probably not be optimal for any other code. For example, given a particular (64, 10) code, an optimal puncturing pattern of 16 bits to generate a punctured (48, 10) code can be found for the particular (64, 10) code, but the puncturing pattern will most likely not be optimal for any other (64, 10) code and the generated punctured (48, 10) code from any other (64, 10) code is most likely not optimal. Implicit in the argument on page 17 of the Applicant's Appeal Brief; is that the puncturing patterns in claims 8, 19, 25 and 29-44 correspond to specific (64, 10) codes for optimizing the minimum distance of the specific (64, 10) codes.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
